

Declaration concerning the usage of perfluorinated and polyfluorinated chemicals (PFAS)

Dear Sir or Madam,

Thank you for your interest in our products. Regarding to your inquiry, we can inform you as follows:

Due to the current legal framework, the obligation to implement depending on the size of the company (number of employees) and the current transition periods, as well as the implementation processes and specifications that have not yet been clarified, we do not see ourselves in a position to issue corresponding declarations at this point in time however, we are active in the joint implementation with our associations to create corresponding legally secure documents. As they become available to us, we will send you the corresponding declaration if you make another request. In the case of PFAS, there are currently no substitutes that can be used from 2025 onwards. As soon as we have current knowledge in our supply chain, we will inform you accordingly if you make another request.

This document was created electronically and is valid without signature.
